Plaintiff, by her attorneys, Levy Ratner, P.C., complain of the Defendants as follows:

INTRODUCTION

This action arises under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, et seq., and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. § 261, et seq., New York Executive Law §§ 290 and 296, and New York City Local Law 59 of 1986, as amended by Local Rule 39 of 1991, § 8-101, et seq., as hereinafter more fully appears. Plaintiff seeks declaratory relief, and compensatory and punitive damages for violations of her rights.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 1. Jurisdiction is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as the action seeks to redress the deprivation of rights secured under the Constitution and laws of the United States.
- 2. The Parties reside, and the cause of action arose, within the Southern District of New York.

3. This lawsuit is commenced within ninety (90) days of Plaintiff's notification by the U.S. Department of Justice that she has a right to sue. (A copy of the notice of right to sue is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A").

PARTIES

- 4. Plaintiff Susan Manca is a sixty (60) year-old woman who has been employed by the New York City Department of Environmental Protection as a per diem Administrative Law Judge since 1990.
- 5. Defendant City of New York ("City") is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Defendant City is an "employer" as defined by Title VII.
- 6. Defendant New York City Department of Environmental Protection ("DEP") is a department, bureau and/or subdivision of the City of New York.

ALLEGATIONS OF FACT

- 7. On or around March 14, 2005, Defendants posted a job vacancy notice for two (2) vacant Level III Agency Attorney positions in the Environmental Control Board's Appeals Unit. The Environmental Control Board is the DEP's administrative hearing tribunal.
- 8. The top posted salary for these positions was $65,011 for full-time employees who had worked for New York City for at least one year prior to July 1, 2004. The posted salary for new employees without New York City employment experience was $56,531.

- 9. The job vacancy notice also stated that in order to obtain one of the Level III positions, incumbents must have either two (2) years of experience in a Level I or Level II position or three (3) years of experience in areas of law related to the job, subsequent to admission to the bar.
- 10. Plaintiff applied for one of the vacant positions, and having worked for the City since 1990, in a closely related area of law she anticipated that she would earn $65,011 if hired for the position. Plaintiff was willing to accept this salary. However, Plaintiff was informed by Defendants that she would only be eligible for the $56,531 salary for new employees without a history of New York City employment.
- 11. For the first posted vacancy, Defendants hired Ilya Novofastovsky, a 32 year-old male with no prior New York City employment history. Novofastovsky was hired at a salary of $70,000, which was not only well above the highest posted salary, but also 20% more than the salary that Plaintiff was told she would have been paid. Novofastovsky, in fact, lacked the minimum level of relevant experience required to be hired for a Level III position, according to the job vacancy notice.

12. Defendants have admitted that:

- A. Plaintiff met the minimum qualifications necessary for the Appeals Unit position; and
- B. In light of her experience and employment history, Plaintiff would have been entitled to the highest posted salary of $65,011 had she been hired.

- 13. Plaintiff has all of the skills and qualities necessary for the Agency Attorney Level III position, and Defendants' failure to hire her was the result of discrimination on the basis of sex and age. Defendants' stated reasons for hiring Novofastovsky ahead of Plaintiff are purely pretextual.
- 14. Defendants engaged in continuing discrimination and retaliation when they refused to consider Plaintiff as a candidate for the second unfilled Agency Attorney Level III position in the Appeals Unit. Plaintiff applied for the position on March 3, 2006.
- 15. Defendants' claim that Plaintiff applied for the position too late is belied by the fact that Defendants did not appoint anyone to the position until August 15, 2006. At that time, Plaintiff's charges of discrimination had been filed with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), and Defendants appointed a woman over forty (40), at a salary of $76,921. This is 27% more than the salary to which Plaintiff was initially told she would be entitled.
- 16. The individual who was appointed to the second Appeals Unit position, Vivienne Kahng, had no appeals experience at the time of her selection for the position.
- 17. Defendants engaged in continuing discrimination and retaliation in connection with an Appeals Unit position posted on September 10, 2007 and re-posted on April 7, 2008. Plaintiff timely applied for the September 2007 position, but by letter dated April 10, 2008, the Chief of the Appeals Unit informed Plaintiff that no candidate had been selected to fill that vacancy. The April 10, 2008 letter also stated that while there "may be" a future posting, "no details" were presently available. In fact, the position had already been re-posted several days 46-001-00001 earlier on April 7, 2008. When Plaintiff inadvertently discovered the April 7, 2008 posting on the DEP web site, she promptly applied for the position.

18. By the above acts, Defendants have discriminated and retaliated against Plaintiff in violation of Federal. State and local law.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

- 19. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 though 18 hereof with the same force and effect as if again set froth here at length.
- 20. The actions of Defendants as set forth above constitute discrimination and retaliation in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, et seq. and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. § 261, et seq.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

- 21. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 though 20 hereof with the same force and effect as if again set froth here at length.
- 22. The actions of Defendants as set forth above constitute a violation of New York Executive Law §§ 290 and 296.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

- 23. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 though 22 hereof with the same force and effect as if again set froth here at length.
- 24. The actions of Defendants as set forth above constitute a violation of New York City Local Law 59 of 1986, as amended by Local Rule 39 of 1991, § 8-101, et seq. 46-001-00001

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the following relief:

- 25. Compensatory damages in the amount of $1,000,000.00, including damages for loss of salary and benefits, mental and emotional distress, humiliation and anguish;
- 26. Punitive damages in the amount of $1,000,000.00, as Defendants acted in willful disregard of Plaintiff's rights, including retaliating against her for filing charges of discrimination.
  - 27. Recovery of reasonable attorneys fees and costs from Defendants;
  - 28. Such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury in this action.

Re: EEOC Charge Against New York City Dept. of Environmental Protections, et al.

No. 520200602405

Dear Ms. Manca:

Because you filed the above charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and more than 180 days have elapsed since the date the Commission assumed jurisdiction over the charge, and no suit based thereon has been filed by this Department, and because you through your attorney have specifically requested this Notice, you are hereby notified that you have the right to institute a civil action under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 2000e, et seq., against the above-named respondent.

If you choose to commence a civil action, such suit must be filed in the appropriate Court within 90 days of your receipt of this Notice.

This Notice should not be taken to mean that the Department of Justice has made a judgment as to whether or not your case is meritorious.

Sincerely,

Grace Chung Becker
